Meetings: The group held a virtual meeting on Dec. 9 from 2:00pm – 3:00pm

Updates on major initiatives

- ALI ILC is hosting a webinar on Thursday, March 8, 2:00pm-3:00pm: The Convergence of the Writing and Research Process. A description of the session follows:

  Professor Susan Ariew, Academic Services Librarian for Education at the University of South Florida, will be sharing her experience and insights concerning this topic via a webinar format. Professor Ariew will:

  - Identify the parallels between the writing and research process
  - Discuss teaching strategies that marry the research process with the writing process

  Professor Ariew’s credentials are available at: Selected Works of Susan A. Ariew.

  As of Feb. 12, we have 36 attendees signed up to attend. Many institutions are also inviting their Writing Centers to attend. The webinar will be hosted by Butler University using AdobeConnect.

- UnConference Program Planning

  The group is still researching alternative locations for the annual ALI ILC UnConference; locations are being explored in northern Indiana. Sally Neal (Butler), Bill Orme (IUPUI), and Nora Belzowski (Valparaiso) will be serving as the planning committee for this program.

- The Committee is still looking to provide an instruction session discussion for the Digital Public Library of America Conference –April 17-18, 2015 (Indianapolis) – plans for this are still very preliminary.

Respectfully submitted on November 10
