Goal today:
Need to start advertising the THATCamp, which has been rescheduled for July 24, 2015. In our Google Group, there is a THATCamp planning document that was posted last November that lists all of the listservs we want to advertise on.

Matthew - ALI listservs, Resource Sharing, MCLS listserv
Franny - ScholComm, COAPI, Digital Commons, Michiana Schol Comm conference attendees, IOLUG listserv, Indiana Archivists listserv
Beth - IUL News, Wednesday Word, SLIS listserv
Tina - IAHI and DPLAInd listserv
All of us - post to your own library listservs and ask your co-workers to share the information with students/faculty at your institutions and with any listservs they think might be relevant.

To-Do for Everyone:
1. Review THATCamp Planning Document before we meet in person (afternoon in the fairly near future, possibly during the week of June 29-July 3). Also Review THATCamp checklist: http://thatcamp.org/help/organize/checklist/
2. Visit THATCamp site and make suggestions for sessions.

Cheri will send out a Doodle Poll to find a time during the week of July 6-10 to meet in person at the Ruth Lilly Library to solidify plans for the THATCamp. Beth will send a list of available times so that we can meet in the room there the THATCamp will be held.
